

Legal Intern for Counter-Human Trafficking Legislative Reform Work

Project Title	Legal Intern for Counter-Human Trafficking Legislative Reform Work
Project Summary	Support Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Person's Legal Affairs Officer on legal analysis of foreign governments' anti-trafficking laws and conduct research relating to the U.S. Trafficking in Persons Report.
Country	United States

Project Description

We are looking for 2L or 3L law students with strong analytical and research skills to help support the Office's Legal Affairs Officer on a variety of interesting projects relating to foreign governments' anti-trafficking legislation. During the internship, you will work directly with the legal affairs officer to review anti-trafficking laws and compile data on laws referenced in the U.S. Trafficking in Persons Report. It is an exciting opportunity to be involved in important and highly effective legislative reform efforts relating to trafficking in persons abroad.
